ROAD MAP TO SUCCESSFUL TRANSITION

I'm ready to take the next step and return to school. This transition is a process. It is not a thing that just happens. It takes preparation, planning, support, communication and most importantly, respect for myself and others!

- PREPARATION AND PLANNING - I need to have goals and a plan to reach those goals.
- SUPPORT FROM OTHERS - I need people who can help me reach my goals.
- COMMUNICATE - I will communicate my goals and plans to all the people involved in helping me.
- SELF-ADVOCACY - I will speak up for myself, communicate my goals and know my rights.
- RESPONSIBILITY - I will take charge of my goals and plans. This is my life!
- PATIENCE AND COMMITMENT - I will remember achieving my goals takes time, hard work and determination.

I'VE BEEN GIVEN THE GREEN LIGHT!

The school will be called so they know you are coming. Your student records and credits will be sent to them.

BEFORE I LEAVE, THERE WILL BE A MEETING TO TALK ABOUT GOING BACK TO SCHOOL OR GETTING MY GED.

Take charge of your life...
Don't take a detour!!!!

NOW IT'S MY RESPONSIBILITY TO RE-ENROLL AND SHOW UP TO SCHOOL THE FIRST DAY AND EVERY DAY!

Bring your parent, guardian, Protection and Safety Worker or Juvenile Services Officer for support, enrollment and required paperwork.

I WILL MEET WITH SCHOOL STAFF TO TALK ABOUT THEIR EXPECTATIONS, MY CLASSES AND SCHEDULE.

This is your opportunity to talk about your goals and plans. Speak up... This is your chance to say what road you want to be on!

START SCHOOL!

Go to school every day,
do the work and follow the rules.
This journey is your responsibility!
